IN GHOSTS?

TO BELIEVE.

BE PREPARED

Haunt has been developed working with writers who have experienced homelessness in Harrogate. Based on words from the Haunt anthology and material shown in the Royal Pump Rooms as part of Harrogate Stories, Haunt is a guided journey arriving at a place where images, music, words and performance ask:

Who are the haunted? Who are the ghosts?

Thursday 30th June to Saturday 2nd July: 2pm; 5pm; 8pm

Tours are limited to 20 per session, Tickets £10/ £8 available from Harrogate Theatre Box Office. www.harrogatetheatre.co.uk Tel: 01423 502116

The 2pm performances will be suitable for families and include a tour of the Royal Pump Rooms Museum. Family tickets for these performances are available at the special price of £20 to include 2 adults and up to 3 children.

The meeting point is a mystery location – you will be texted or emailed details when you have booked tickets.

Written by Steve Toase, Becky Cherriman and the Haunt Writers Directed by Tessa Gordziejko; Music and sound design by Kwah; Projections and lighting design by Al Orange; Movement by Zoe Parker and Tom Hunt.
